

ITA EVER

MARITE KLEMMER
SERGEI JERJOMIN
SIMMO LAIT

Foto from
Eesti teatri biograafiline leksikon

Foto from
Tallinna Reaalkool

ITA EVER

About her

- Her birth name is Ilse Ever
- She was born in Paide on 1 April 1931
- She is an Estonian actress
- Ita Ever is 91 years old
- Her father was from Estonia and he was addicted to alcohol
- Her mother was from Russia and she was the owner of a hair salon
- 1953-1959 she was married to Eino Baskin
- She has one child, Roman Baskin
- She is a very many-sided actress

EESTI FILMI- JA TELEAUHINNAD 2018
EFTA 2018

- JA TELEA

Foto from ELU

Roman Baskin

Education

- 1939-1940 she studied at Tallinn Elementary School No 14
- 1940-1944 she studied at Tallinn Elementary School No 8
- 1944-1950 she studied at Tallinn Secondary School No 4
- 1950-1953 she studied in the Estonian studio of GITIS in Moscow

Work

-
- Ita Ever worked in a warehouse of a bookstore carrying books from the basement to the bookstore.

Films where she has played

- In 1983, she starred as Miss Marple in The Secret of the Blackbirds
- Her first major role was in “Naine kütab sauna”.
- The last film in which Ita Ever appeared was directed by her son Roman Baskin The Visit of the Old Lady in 2006
- Ita Ever played Krõõt’s role in Truth and Justice in theatre

Foto from ETV - ERR

The Visit of the Old Lady

Bumpy

- Estonian musical film directed by Helle Karis
- Based on the novel of the same name by Oskar Luts
- Very hard to play because of the makeup
- The one who played Bumby lives in Tamsalu

Foto from Tartu Elektriteater

Ita Ever in "Bumpy"

Plays in theatre

- She played Suzanne in Figaro's Wedding
- She played Saša in Living Corpse
- She played Fosforne's woman in Sauna
- She played Marta in Marta
- She played Erika in I Loved a German
- She played an old lady in Three Tall Women

FOTO from
Draamateater

An old lady in “Three Tall Women”

THANK YOU FOR LISTENING